I like John Prine songs
About the crazy things we do
There's a ghost who likes to haunt me
When my guitar's out of tune

I like to watch old movies
About the men who won the wars
I don't think the past repeats itself
Or what's this living for?

I've got a stack of books at home
I buy but never read
Seen the wonders of the world
On the screen of my TV

And though I'm free to come and go
I seem to go nowhere
You'd think I'd have more answers
With all this gray up in my hair

But when you don't know where you're going
It don't matter where you turn
And if you're too hard-headed
It don't matter what you learned
I sure could use some wisdom
On these trips around the sun
Got lost on the way to Nowhere,
But my mind's still on the run

I've got a closet full of clothes
Most I never wear
Donate old suits to Goodwill for the homeless men to wear, somewhere

I pay for iCloud storage
Cause my memories choke my phone
And while lovers love their lovers
The thinkers all get stoned

If you don't know where you're going

It don't matter where you turn
And if you're too hard-headed
It don't matter what you learned
I could use some good directions
On these trips around the sun
I got stuck on the way to Nowhere
But my mind's still on the run

I may be treading water
But at least I'm still afloat
And though my wheels are spinning
I'm still up on the road
I can feel a fair wind blowing
From the place I'm headed to
Can't find it on no map app
But I think I'll get there soon

Cause when you don't know where you're going
It don't matter where you turn
And if you're just too hard-headed
It don't matter what you learned
I'm running low on wisdom
On these trips around the sun
I got lost on the way to Nowhere
But my mind's still on the run
Yea, my mind's still on the run
