An Eye for an Eye (will leave the whole world blind)

An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
We must love one another or die

A baby's a baby wherever she's born
A bomb is a bomb wherever it's thrown
The night is the night 'cause it's all the same sky
A tear is a tear 'cause it's all the same cry

The oceans are the oceans
From shore to shore
Peace is peace, and war is war

An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
We must love one another or die

Blood is blood 'cause it's all the same vein
The sun is the sun and the rain is the rain
Faith is faith you can't say it's not
And fear is fear and God is God

The mountains are the mountains
From east to west
Who's to say, who's the best

An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
We must love one another or die

OurFatherWhoArtinHeavenBaruchAtahAdonaiDiosDanosPaxMa'salam
OurFatherWhoArtinHeavenBaruchAtahAdonaiDiosDanosPaxMa'salam

An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
An eye for an eye will leave the whole world blind
We must love one another

We must love one another

We must love one another

Or die
