

"Footprints"
Kate Thompson
Ireland

Sunshine
Good times
Are not sure to last

Rainstorms
Hard times
May appear too fast

If the shadow of misfortune
Should linger for too long
Love will feel your sorrow
And love will hear your song

When it seems there's nothing more to live for
No will to fight
All you see is the darkness that surrounds you
No end in sight
When the road is long and lonely
And home is far from view
Love whispers "do not worry
I will shelter you."

Instrumental

If the shadow of misfortune
Should linger for too long
Love will feel your sorrow
And love will hear your song

When the world has placed upon your shoulder
More than you can bear
Leaves you no option to continue
Save surrender to despair
When hope is in the distance
With no way through
Love whispers "do not worry
I will carry you."